

please allow us to hear many voices - do not lift the restrictions on media ownership. The news on TV is already very limited and mainstream. I need to resort to print. If print will now also be owned by TV where will our democracy be?